Letter of recommendation

On behalf of KM Digital, I want to express our sincere gratitude to Gleb for his outstanding contribution and professionalism during two years of collaboration. Gleb has proven himself as a highly talented and driven specialist in the field of website development, CRM systems, and other complex projects.

In his work, Gleb has demonstrated exceptional skills in creating large-scale web platforms, Telegram bots, administrative panels, and efficient CRM systems. His deep understanding of technical aspects and innovative problem-solving approaches have made him a key player in our team. Gleb possesses a unique ability to adapt to new technologies and quickly respond to industry changes, making him an indispensable asset to our company.

We value his professionalism, responsibility, and dedication to quality in every project. His attention to detail, showcased in his work, contributes to the successful execution of even the most intricate tasks. His ability to collaborate within the team and easily connect with colleagues creates a productive and friendly work atmosphere.

We take pride in having Gleb on our team and highly appreciate his contribution to our success. We are confident that his talent and dedication will bring prosperity both to him personally and to our company.

Sincerely,

CEO Marat Khamidullov
